ARTISTRY ON THE GREEN WELCOMES ANTHONY MAZZOTTA AS EXECUTIVE CHEF

The Lexington, MA restaurant at the Relais & Chateaux property, The Inn at Hastings Park, hires classically trained, Boston-bred Mazzotta

(LEXINGTON, MA) September 24, 2015, The Inn at Hastings Park , the only Relais & Chateaux affiliated hotel in the Boston area, is delighted to announce new leadership in its restaurant, Artistry on the Green. Anthony Mazzotta is the new executive chef. Most recently, Anthony has served as sous chef at EVOO in Cambridge and executive chef at Lucca Back Bay. Anthony also has worked with Ken Oringer at Toro in the South End. After attending culinary school at New Hampshire College, Anthony commenced his culinary career as Chef de Partie at The French Laundry, Thomas Keller's highly acclaimed Napa Valley restaurant. Success there led to Anthony being hired as a member of the team to open the much anticipated Per Se, Thomas Keller's restaurant in New York. Anthony worked at The French Laundry and Per Se for four years before returning to Boston.

"We are thrilled to welcome Anthony to the team at The Inn at Hastings Park and Artistry on the Green," said Daniel Braun, general manager of The Inn at Hastings Park. "Anthony brings with him a wealth of experience. Beyond his extensive training at world renowned restaurants, Anthony also understands the hotel business having worked years ago as a chef at the Seaport Boston Hotel. Combine that industry knowledge with the fact that Anthony grew up in the Boston area with an Italian family who has been teaching him how to cook since he was a child—Anthony's the perfect person to lead our culinary team."

At Artistry on the Green, Anthony embraces cooking techniques that heighten the freshest ingredients, while adhering to his philosophy that simple preparations can outshine the complicated. These are values that Anthony has been taught since childhood, having grown up with parents who cured their own sausages, grew gardens ripe with fresh produce, and made their own wine. These same values are celebrated at Artistry on the Green where Anthony works closely with the area's farmers and purveyors, bringing the best of local, seasonal ingredients to the table.

"I am very excited to be serving as executive chef at Artistry on the Green," said Mazzotta. "I'm fortunate that there's already a fantastic team in place in the kitchen who have collaborated to design menus that reflect an inventive twist on traditional New England favorites, which is appropriate fare to be serving at a quintessential New England inn. I do look forward to adding my influence and creating new signature dishes. To start, I have some ideas for new proteins, pastas, desserts and cheese boards. This is a great opportunity, and I'm excited to be here."
